the State Health Department, contains a complete report of the public health laws of the State. Many of these were revised by the Legislature at its last season, and they are printed so that the public may be fully advised. The General Assembly largely increased the powers and duties of the State Board of Health in the work of preventing and allaying epidemics and for the general maintenance of sanitary conditions. It also changed the manner of creating local boards of health and required local physicians to report cases of infectious diseases. In addition, the administration of the provisions of the new hetel bill is placed in the hands of the State Health Commissioner.

Governor Mann vesterday appointed a new board of visitors to Mount Vernon, for the year beginning April 11, 1910. All the members of this board are appointed annually. They make at least one official visit of inspection to the Washington home, usually accompanied by the Governor. This trip may be taken in the latter navious may be taken in the latter part of
